COMEDIES of Courtship, by Anthony Hope, might almost be called the Second Comedy of Errors, for it is "full of 'em." It is a Comedy of Love and Dynamite, more especially dynamite. The author quotes Byron on the title-page: "How the devil is it that fresh features have so much charm for us poor human creatures?" Anthony Hope has grasped the situation pretty well, and give us some amusing incidents of the lighter side of Nature. The fair sophist, Agatha Glyn, who maintains only a bowing acquaintance with her conscience, becomes engaged, and disengaged with the utmost felicity; there is a man in it, too, who helps the comedy very liberally. No fear of the reader falling asleep over this book; his attention will be engrossed with the revolving powers of the "Wheel of Love." At Jacobsen's, 499 Florida, corner Lavalle.

Telegrams

(Per Havas Agency.)

Withdrawal of Turkish troops from Crete.

Tewfik Pacha requires an order from the Sultan.

Bombs discovered in Spain.

President Faure's visit to the Czar.

Fight between French and Italian workmen.

London, 17th—The bankers here connected with Argentine affairs are now of opinion that a new loan is in contemplation, which will include all the previous ones of 4½ per cent., and will be launched at a lower rate of interest, as the credit of the Argentine Republic is now excellent; but, before taking any step in the matter the bankers wish to know the result of the new taxes, and from what source the money to pay the full interest on the National Bonds is to come.

Rome, 17th—The Prince of Naples left last night for England via Paris, and much importance is attached in political circles to the interview he will have with President Faure. For three days the King and Cabinet discussed whether the Prince should passs through France or not, as he feared a bad reception for his son from the populace of Paris, owing to the Prince's visit to Alsace Lorraine with the Emperor of Germany a few years ago. Premier Rudini finally persuaded the King that the Prince's visit to President Faure would have the best results, and M. Billot, the French Ambassador, assured His Majesty that nothing disagreeable was to be feared.

Deptford, 17th—In this market to-day 324 Argentine steers were sold at from 36 to 37½ pence per stone. Also 1540 wethers at 48 pence. There is no more Argentine live stock in the market.

Paris, 17th—The man who threw the bomb in Place de la Concorde has not yet been arrested, but the police are on his track. He is a German agitator, and the police have had their eyes on him for some time past.

Washington, 17th—The Sandwich Islands Annexation Treaty hands them over to the United States without any condition whatever. The President's Message to Congress says the Treaty is to make friendly relations with the islands closer. There is a three quarters majority in Congress in favour of the Treaty.

Monaco, 17th—Father Knipp, a leader in the reformed church, died here to-day.

Vienna, 17th—There was a banquet given to-day in Canea at which all the Admirals of the united fleets and foreign Consuls were present. The Admirals have requested the Governor, Tewfik Pasha, to withdraw the Turkish troops from Hierapetra, but he said he could not accede without orders from the Sublime Porte.

St. Petersburg, 17th — Mr. Crozier, Director of the French Protocol, arrived here this morning, and was received with great honours. He comes to arrange with the Government the details of President Faure's visit to this city. The fetes in honour of the French President will be of extraordinary brilliancy.

Marseilles, 17th—Telegrams from Arles say that the excitement there is calming down, and that all fear of fresh disorder has disappeared. Work in the salt mines was resumed this afternoon quite peacefully by all the men. It was rumoured at first that two workmen had been killed in the fight, but it was untrue, and the authorities have denied it.

Madrid, 17th—Telegrams from Havannah announce another defeat of a band of rebels in Pinar del Rio. They had 30 killed and many wounded, and several more were captured or surrendered.

Paris, 17th—There was a fight near Arles this morning between Italian and French workmen employed in the salt mines near there. One of the Italians stabbed a Frenchman in some petty dispute; then a general fight began and the Italians had to run away. Troops were sent from Arles to restore order.

Barcelona, 17th—Three explosive bombs were found to-day in the neighbouring villages of Villanueva and Geltoa. No trace whatever of the criminals has been found.

London, 17th—The House of Commons has resolved to attend "en masse" the Jubilee service in St. Margaret's church on Sunday next. Mr. Redmond protested on behalf of the Irish members; but he was shouted down with cries of "Long live the Queen!" from all the rest of the House and the strangers in the galleries.

Rome, 17th—The Deputies are debating the estimates for the Home Department Deputy Codronchi explained his course of action in Sicily as Royal Commissioner, and said he had left the post confided to him by the King with profound faith in the future and the greatness of his country.

Como, 17th—The Prince and Princess of Naples passed through here to-day on their way to Paris and England. There was a great crowd at the station, which cheered them enthusiastically.

Paris, 17th—President Faure has consented to be arbitrator in the bonndary question between Costa Rica and Colombia.

THIS MORNING'S TELEGRAMS.

(Received after Midnight)

Brussels, 17th—M. Boucher, the French Minister of Industry and Post Master General, who had arrived here 'en passant', was this evening entertained at a banquet by the Mayor of the Capital. In his after-dinner speech M. Boucher said that the policy of France was to-day essentially one of peace.

Madrid, 17th—Señor Sagasta announces his intention to publish a statement explaining his attitude with respect to the recent differences arisen in the Liberal ranks, and giving his plans for the future. Great importance is attached to this document.

Berlin, 17th—In political circles it is confidently asserted that Dr. Miquel will, on the re-opening of the Reichstag, succeed Herr Bötticher as Minister of the Interior.

Madrid, 17th—The bombs discovered to-day were lying in a well, placed there, presumably, as a safe hiding-place.

London, 17th—A telegram from the Cape announces that the Volksraad of the Orange Free State has ratified the treaty signed "ad referendum" with Dr. Krüger's Government.

PROGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

We have received by the mail a copy of Mr. Michael G. Mulhall's article on the progress of the United States, and we avail of a lull in local matters to reproduce it, convinced as we are that the wonderful story he tells with figures and hard facts will be read with as much interest here as it has been in other parts of the world. Our brother-editor deals with the subject as exhaustively as he has handled the "Queen's Reign," the salient chapters of which work we have been reproducing in these columns. There is little left for us to say, but we may point out that the world's progress since the beginning of the century is mainly due to the efforts of British brains and labor, whether under the sway of the throne or that of a republican regime. Our brother-editor writes thus:—

The progress of the United States in the last fifty years so far surpases that of any other nation in ancient or modern times, whether viewed in regard to population, or to industry and wealth, that the subject is one of extraordinary interest, not only to Americans, but to European spectators. In order more closely to study the subject we may consider the Union as composed of five great communities, viz., New England, the Middle, the Southern, the Prairie, and the Pacific States. All have advanced, although not equally nor in the same direction, and all give promise of steady development in the future.

Beginning with the New England States, we have to consider the smallest of the communities in question, since the collective area of the six States hardly exceeds that of Florida. It is, however, in some respects the most interesting; its historical associations include Plymouth Rock and Bunker's Hill; its academic and literary glories shed a light over the whole Union, and its cities and towns have been the cradle of manufacturing industry in the New World.

Population — The population of New England has not quite doubled in the last half century, while that of the Union has more than trebled; but this is not surprising, since the room for expansion is less, the density of population being 75 persons to the square mile while, it is only twenty three for the whole Union. Progress since 1850 is shown thus:—

	1850	1890	(Est.) 1897
Maine	585,000	661,000	670,000
New Hampshire	320,000	376,000	405,000
Vermont	315,000	332,000	335,000
Rhode Island	150,000	346,000	410,000
Connecticut	370,000	746,000	790,000
Massachusetts	995,000	2,239,000	2,590,000
Total	2,785,000	4,700,000	5,200,000

We have the strongest evidence of the assimilating character of American institutions in the fact that New England is typical of the American people, although half the population is composed of immigrants and their children, the census of 1890 showing:—

Foreign settlers	1,142,000
Their children	1,069,000
Americans	2,489,000
Total	4,700,000

No less than 70 per cent. of foreign settlers (793,000) consisted of Canadians and Irish, two races that appear to coalesce with Americans more readily than any others. Meantime the character of the New England people has undergone a remarkable change since 1850, the increase of manufactures having been attended with a decline of agriculutre, and hence urban population (that is of all towns over 10,000 population) has more than doubled since 1870 while rural has stood still, viz.;—

	Urban		Rural
	1870	1890	1870	1890
Maine	74,000	113,000	553,000	548,000
N. Hampshire	46,000	23,000	272,000	283,000
Vermont	14,000	27,000	317,000	305,000
Rhode Island	104,000	247,000	113,000	99,000
Connecticut	147,000	352,000	390,000	394,000
Massachusetts	690,000	1,444,090	767,000	795,000
Total	1,075,000	2,276,000	2,412,000	2,424,000

The rapid growth of towns has coincided with a great influx of immigration from Europe, and thus it has come to pass that the American population has declined from 66 per cent. of the total in 1870 to 53 per cent. in 1890. In other words, the census returns show that in 20 years the number of Americans had increased very little, viz.:—

	1870	1890	Increase, per cent.
Foreign settlers	649,000	1,142,000	76
Their children	496,700	1,069,000	115
Americans	2,342,000	2,489,000	6
Total	3,487,000	4,700,000	35

If we seek to ascertain the cause why the American population does not increase in New England as it does in other parts of the Union, we are almost forced to conclude that Jonathan prefers agriculture to manufactures, and that in the last 25 years some thousands of New Englanders have gone West, and given over their old farms to Canadians, whose number has increased so much that in 1890 they formed 8 per cent of the whole population.

Agriculture—This branch of industry has considerably lost ground in New England since 1850, owing to the opening up of the Western States, the cultivated area having declined, and the production of food diminished as follows:

	1850	1893	Diminution
Grain, tons	525,000	470,000	55,000
Potatoes	480,000	460,000	20,000
Meat	108,000	81,000	27,000

So limited is now the production of breadstuffs that the total grain crop of New England would hardly suffice to feed the population of Connecticut; and as to meat, the quantity produced yearly is less than what is consumed in four months. In fact, agriculture is an industry of secondary importance, the cultivated area not exceeding one-fourth of New England, and a large number of the rural population, especially in Maine, preferring to occupy themselves in felling timber. If it were not for the Western States the people of New England would find themselves, as regards food-supply, in the same position as the inhabitants of Great Britain, who mainly depend on foreign countries for grain and meat. Comparing the official returns of 1890 with those of 1850 we find that in New England the size of farms has diminished, viz.:—

	No. of Farms	Acres	Average, acres
1850	167,700	11,150,000	67
1890	190,100	10,740,000	56

This is apparently due to an increase of dairy-farms, for we observe that although horned cattle declined by 60,000 head, the number of milch-cows rose from 608,000 to 821,000, an increase of 35 per cent. Nevertheless, the number is still insufficient to supply the population with milk and butter, as there should be at least one milch-cow for every five inhabitants, say 1,040,000. If we sum up the value of all farm products in the six New England States, we find approximately as follows:

	Tons	Values
	—	$
Grain	470,000	9,900,000
Potatoes	460,000	11,300,000
Meat and tallow	96,000	15,000,000
Hay	4,100,000	58,100,000
Dairy produce	—	32,300,000
Sundries	—	25,400,000
Total	—	152,000,000

The gross result gives an average of $800 to each farm, equal to $14 per acre, the average for the whole Union being $850 per farm and only $11 per acre, from which it appears that the smaller the farm the greater product per acre, the average size of American farms being 78 acres, that is 40 per cent. more than in New England. Coincident with the diminution of New England farms there has been a remarkable rise in the value of land, the census of 1890 showing an increase of 150 million dollars in farming capital since 1850. The following table gives the total value of farms and live-stock in each State, as well as the average of land per acre:

	Million dollars		Dollars per acre
	1850	1890	1850	1890
Maine	67	122	27	33
New Hampshire	66	80	24	38
Vermont	79	102	24	30
Rhode Island	19	25	47	81
Connecticut	82	108	41	69
Massachusetts	122	148	51	77
Total	435	585	34	46

The increase of dairy farming has, therefore, greatly enhanced the value of land, to the benefit of the farmers, each farm now representing a capital value of $3,070, against $2,510 in 1850.

In our next we shall reproduce the chapter on industries.

LONDON LETTER.

CAN THE GREEKS FIGHT?

(From our own Correspondent.)

May 22nd.

"Sir Ahmed Bartlett," as the Morning Leader calls him, is still recounting his adventures. A representative of that journal writes:— "Our man found Sir Ellis all ruddied o'er, but not with gore. He said: "I hired a vessel, the trip was only about 12 miles, but the boat was a small sailing caique, and we were becalmed all night. Next morning the Greek fleet swooped down upon me. I was ordered to go on board the Admiral's vessel, but I refused to budge an inch. The whole Greek fleet was upon me, but I defied them. The warships and torpedo boats manœuvered round my little caique.' 'Whatever did you do? Why didn't you hoist the British flag? 'Hadn't got one.' 'Ha! no one should ever travel without a supply of Union Jacks. Well what happened?" 'Oh, eventually I consented to go aboard the Admiral's boat. The Turks are extremely good fighters; their only fault from a soldier's point of view was that they were much too slow in following up their victories. The Greeks are not good fighters. No, the Greeks have done better than could have been expected. They are not Imperial, sir: they are mere journalists, and that sort of thing."

"Sir Ahmed's" cool and disparaging estimate of Greek gallantry, comparing the Greeks to "journalists and that sort of thing," contains a certain amount of truth, but gives an utterly fradulent impression of the real state of the case. Doubtless the upper and middle classes in Athens are not much better than "journalists" and are terrible fellows to talk and scribble, while many of them are carpet loungers at home and poltroons in war Unhappily from these classes come the majority of the officers in the Greek army, who, as far as we can gather, have not, in general, distinguished themselves in the late contest. But from a mass of quotations I send you from the war correspondents of the different London papers, whose letters are now falling in in abundance, you will see that the Greek soldiers can fight, and have fought, with the greatest courage and determination.

Had they been better led and better organised the Turks would never have reached Larissa. From the rapidity of the Turkish success, we have, perhaps, overrated the prowess of the Ottoman soldiery, and the fear is that they will henceforth have a tendency to overrate it themselves, so that the Moslem Government will be a trouble in Europe for years to come. We have crippled shamelessly and needlessly a gallant little outpost of the Christian world. "Her own fault" it will be said. True. But some people will not take it lying down, and it is useless to say to them "it would be better for you if you did." It may be partly admitted that the Greeks have committed nearly every mistake they could commit. They have bragged, lied and blundered. Still the history of late events has to be fully written before we can judge them. The old excuse given long since in their behalf that they were fighting not only the Turks but the Powers was quite accurate. The operations of the Greek navy have been held in check to save Salonica, while the only hope which could have made the Greek policy rational has been dashed by the Great Powers, who, to serve the malice of this one and to ease the craven fears of that one, and cover the comfortable personally conducted foreign policy of another, have held the allies of Greece in fetters. Lord Salisbury said the other day, "everything in this world has to be paid for." True, Greece's bill has been sent in. The bill of the Powers has yet to be made out. Meanwhile the "Federation of Europe" having settled Greece is turning its attention to Turkey and lowering the demands of the Sultan. Whose turn will it be next? Probably Egypt's! However we are now talking of Greece and the fighting capacities of the Hellenes. As a modern Greek author tells us, they form the sole living remnant of the ancient world. Rome and the Romans have gone. Nothing remains of them but the ruins of their aqueducts, and a name, while the race of ancient Hellas is with us in form and feature in the valleys of Crete and Thessaly. As you will see in the quotations enclosed, Amilcare Cipriani, whose socialist band fought magnificently at Domokos, bears testimony to the good fighting qualities of the "little Greeks". This could refer only to certain Greek provincials. The Gozones of the Thessalian hills, and the old Spartan colony in Crete are anything but small men, and no one denies their fighting ability. Cipriani blames the incapacity of the leaders and the treachery of the monarchy. The latter accusation coming from an Italian revolutionist and Garibaldian will of course be received with becoming incredulity. The fact remains that it is rumoured the Duke of Sparta has been shot at by his own men, and we know enough of certain European courts to believe any meanness of them, when family and dynastic interests are at stake. Meantime no sensible person would without evidence to the contrary attribute to treachery what is, and was long since represented as part of the Greek plan of campaign. At Greek head quarters there was a wholesome recollection of Sedan and a constant fear of being surrounded by Edham Pasha's superior forces. Hence the sudden, and to us, often unaccountable retreats by night of the Greek forces when the day had gone against them at even one point. These tactics evidently commenced at the Moluna pass, when it was said one of the Greek commanders had "mistaken" the Crown Prince's instructions and had retreated from a strong position towards Tyrnavos, an operation which allowed the Turks to gain the pass and walk unopposed into the plains of Thessaly. Some of the war correspondents quaintly remark that each retreat has been "led" by the Crown Prince. We observe that His Royal Highness viewed the final battle of Domokos from the balcony of his hotel before ordering his carriage to lead the retreat to Lamia. No one ventures to criticise these tactics. The Crown Prince is supposed to have known the capabilities of his soldiers and the most prudent course to save needless expenditure of lives. The Prince was short of commissioned officers, and what there were, were mostly inexperienced. In the Franco-German war, when the officers of a German regiment were shot down, the men held up their rifles as a sign. Reinforcements were not always at hand, and the troops generally trickled back to the rear as if beaten. The German drill, I believe, now is, that under similar circumstances, the men shall join the nearest battalion to them in position, what the Greek drill may be we are not informed, but in many cases it seemed that when the officers disappeared or the commander in chief drove off, the men fell back helter-skelter. Discouragement must naturally result from over-played tactics of retreat, and in the Greek army so largely composed of irregulars, panics were inevitable. Moreover there was no cavalry to cover a retreat. What cavalry the Greeks possessed were little more than mounted intantry. On the other hand the famed Circassian cavalry on the Turkish side made no great impression. They were constantly repulsed with great loss by the steady fire of the Greek infantry. The Greek artillery was excellent, far superior to the Turkish, but in guns as well as men the Hellenes were completely outnumbered. The Greeks upon the whole behaved well. In some instances grandly. They were infamously led. Athenian, military and petty court dandyism and what "Sir Ahmed" calls "journalism" have had most share in the national disaster.

THE ANNEXATION OF HAWAII.

YESTERDAY'S TELEGRAMS.

The signing of the Hawaiian Annexation Treaty, the formal protest of the Japanese Minister in the matter, and the appointment of the new Minister to Spain, were the principal items of news from Washington yesterday.

At 9.20 a.m., Wednesday, while the principal offices at the Government House in Buenos Aires were being dusted and prepared for the day, at the Department of State in Washington, the Secretary, Mr. John Sherman, a man 74 years of age, the Hawaiian Minister, Mr. Hatch, and the Attorney-General of Hawaii, Mr. W. O. Smith, affixed their signatures to the Annexation Treaty and yesterday the President sent the treaty to the Senate accompanied by a short message.

The treaty states, among other things, that the islands are ceded to the United States and will become National territory, and that the Territorial form of Government will be applied to them. That is, the President appoints a Governor and certain other officials, but all local officials are elected by the people, and local laws, etc., are enacted by a legislature—the members being elected by the inhabitants of the islands—and submitted to the President for his approval. Nothing is said about a pension for the ex-Queen and her family, but if the inhabitants of the islands wish to impose a local tax for her support, the President can hardly be expected to veto such a measure.

The treaty also provides that until Congress takes action in the matter Japanese and Chinese laborers are not to be allowed to enter the islands, and those already there are not to be allowed to leave the islands for the States.

As to the protest of Japan, it is most likely merely a formality to guard existing treaty rights, it being probable that she has certain treaty rights which she would like to preserve after the islands become United States territory, and which she feels quite certain the American Government will not care to continue to recognize.

That Japan is going to make any serious trouble is not to be believed, and we have the declaration of the Ex-Prime Minister, Marquis Ito, the Mikado's representative to the Jubilee festivities, in support of this view; for, when interviewed in Paris on Wednesday, he said that Japan had not the least idea of provoking hostilities with the United States, and that the stories about the questions that had arisen between the Hawaiian and Japanese Governments had been much exaggerated.

From London we are informed that the Daily News says that the best reason for the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands is probably to be found in the words of Captain Mahan, U.S.N., the great naval strategist and historian. Captain Mahan says that the islands are the key to the Pacific, and that the nation that possesses them can dominate the N. Pac. Coast. The Times thinks that the Hawaiian annexation is but the forerunner of others. Although President McKinley may say that the case of the Hawaiian Islands is an exceptional one, there are powerful forces in the States that will work for a repetition of this annexation business, and here the Times refers to the Island of Cuba.

The Hawaiian annexation, taken in connection with the recent instructions sent to the American representative in Nicaragua, as to using all necessary means to guard the rights of the American company holding the concession for the proposed canal, the talk of purchasing the Danish West Indies, and other signs all seem to us to point to a determination on the part of the American Government to control the canal through the isthmus, if it is ever constructed, and we should not be surprised if before the end of the present administration the American Government became actively interested in the construction of the canal, either by guaranteeing the bonds of the company or by taking up the actual construction as a National work.

The other day we spoke of the Hawaiian annexation as the inauguration of a new National policy. Strictly speaking, we were probably wrong; for the annexation of the islands is nothing more than an act tending to the consistent maintainance of a National attitude, and that, the same that caused the enunciation of the famous Monroe doctrine, so many years ago.

General Stewart L. Woodford of New York has at last been named American Minister to Spain, and as soon as he arrives in Madrid, we may look for further developments in the Cuban question.

The South American commercial delegates were received by the Boston Chamber of Commerce at 1 o'clock on Wednesday. The important feature of the reception was a speech of Don Carlos Lix-Klett, in which he pointed to the willingness evinced by the Argentine Government and public men to favor North American interests, as had been pointed out by Consul Baker, ex-Minister Pitkin, and Minister Buchanan; while the new American Tariff bill treats Argentine products most unfairly, imposing practically a prohibitive duty on hides and wool, the principal articles exported.

RIBY GROVE LINCOLN SHEEP.

(Communicated).

The importance and value of pure bred stock to this country is beyond estimation. It therefore gives me particular pleasure to direct attention to the fact that Mr Henry Dudding, of Riby Grove, Stollingbro' Lincolnshire, England, has in THE STANDARD a permanent advertisement of his noted flock of Lincoln sheep and herd of Shorthorn cattle. The flock and herd of Mr. Henry Dudding are, of course, to those of our countrymen who have visited England, well known, and these can testify as to what a grand flock and herd are to be found at Riby Grove. Large as Mr. H. Dudding's occupation is, it has been found that the herd has outgrown the accommodation that can be provided for it. Mr. Dudding has therefore decided to offer by auction on July 27th next, a very large selection of the herd, and a certain number of selected ram and ewe hoggs from his world-renowned flock. That an immense company will be present on this day we cannot doubt, but what we would especially direct our reader's attention to is the valuable opportunity it offers breeders to secure typical and properly bred cattle and sheep. Not only will those that attend the sale be able to inspect the animals offered for sale, but they will also be able to see what to breeders is of the greatest possible moment and value, i.e., the entire herd and flock of one who can truly be termed one of England's most notable breeders of live-stock. No matter be it shorthorns or Lincoln sheep, buyers will at all points be able to see, and note the work of that great master-mind that controls this large and extensive business.

Detailed description, of the herd is of course impossible in so brief an account as this; but it will suffice to say that there will be found at Riby Grove specimens of most, if not all of the principal shorthorn families. The herd has been for years most carefully bred, and whenever additions, have been made thereto by purchases these have been always selected with very great care. The cows and heifers to be offered are of first classment, combined with substances and good coats. They will be found to be in capital order, not pampered or overfed, but in just such a condition that they may be purchased for shipment, with every prospect of being able to look as new at the end of voyage as when they are shipped. The bulls for sale are a grand and well bred lot, and as their representative considers, will meet with a ready demand from not only export buyers but home breeders as well. There will be offered a very excellent lot indeed, and this sale will offer a capital opportunity to secure first-class animals of the highest breeding and pedigree, typical in every way of their breed, with good coats and dark in color, reds and red roans, just of that description that always commands full value in every market, no matter where it be.

In dealing briefly with that Lincoln flock that finds its home at Riby we feel most diffident from the fact that so grand is the flock and so well known and highly valued are the sheep it produces, however, when I inspected the flock early in the present year it was found to be in grand shape. What a flock it is; the principle characteristic being its almost unique flock likeness; type and character combined with immense size of carcase, with fleeces of wool of the highest value both as regards quality and texture, with immense length of staple. It represents the work and labor of three if not more generations, for such grand flock likeness could not have been produced except by a long and continuous course of consistent management and uniformity of treatment. A most marked and important quality possessed by sheep of this flock is their immense power of impressing their good qualities upon their produce, a fact one may claim to be established almost beyond dispute as the following figures will prove:—

1896	1895	1894	1893	Date of sale
117	114	100	60	No. of rams sired by Dudding rams or their sons.
4644 2 6	5697 12 6	1020 9 0	£ 889 3 9	Amount made.
87 19 8	23 0 11	19 4 1	£ 14 16 7	Average.
355	396	375	385	Total No. of rams sold at the sale.
10211 6 6	6396 6 6	4068 16 6	£ 4402 13 0	Amount made.
28 15 8	19 6 1	13 19 7	£ 18 18 2	Average.

These are the figures and averages of the sales held by public auction at Lincoln Annual Ram Sale, an event which, by-the-bye, is being duly announced in these columns. With such figures as the above, we need not employ words to prove the great value that is attached to sheep of the Dudding blood. Taking another set of figures, also collected from the results of the Lincoln sale, but referring only to Mr. H. Dudding's own rams, further emphasize the value that breeders put upon his sheep:—

				£	s.	d.
1892	22	rams	sold averaged	38	3	8
1893	20	»	»	37	6	6½
1894	20	»	»	38	9	1
1895	17	»	»	40	15	8½
1896	15	»	»	102	4	0

Notwithstanding the enormous demand that Mr. H. Dudding has for his rams and ewes, it is a proof of their quality and merit that the actual price paid keeps increasing as the number sold increases. This year, in consequence of the sale of the herd, there will be offered at the same time and place, i.e., at the Riby Grove, Stollingboro, near Lincoln, on July 27, 1897, a capital and valuable selection of rams and ewes. This home sale will, however, in nowise interfere with the annual sale at Lincoln, for a special and selected lot will be offered there as usual. The flock, numbering 1350 ewes, naturally produces more sheep than will be offered at the two sales above named, and therefore buyers can be assured that if unable to attend at either the above dates their requirements can always be met and supplied at all times. Reference has not been made here to the show-yard career of this flock, for such facts are too well known to need recapitulation here, whether it be the record win at the Royal Show, Windsor, 1889, where the representatives of the flock almost swept the decks, securing the unique honour of winning all three prizes for shearling rams as well as first for shearling ewes, as well as for the best three fleeces of Lincoln wool, an award that has always been considered to be of the greatest value, proving as it does, that not only can this flock produce prize-winning sheep, but prize-winning wool as well, as the record for the year 1896, when the flock at the principal shows of England, number 4, at which this breed is largely shown, secured 8 first, 7 second and other minor awards.

Nor has any record or statement of prizes been made for specially selected sheep, for the simple fact that many of these, perhaps the highest, have been secured in private transactions, but speaking from a general knowledge of the information given by the owner, I can safely say that this record, if it could be given as a whole, would be very hard to equal and probably unable to be beaten. To this flock belongs the honour of being the first flock to secure for one of its specimens the present record price for rams of the breed, i.e., 350 guineas, and it also holds, I understand, the record for ram lambs, i.e., 120 guineas.

Such then is a short outline of the principal and leading Lincoln flock of the world, which, however, like many other things in this world, must be seen and inspected to be fully appreciated, hence I strongly advise all who can do so, to visit the same, when I can assure them of a thorough and hearty welcome.

It is a well established fact that children cry for Scott's Emulsion once they have tasted it. Read what the late Dr. Pirovano wrote about the Emulsion in 1890:—"It is "now some time that I have been pres-"cribing Scott's Emulsion for weak and "scrofulous children, and in my practice I "have become convinced that said prepara-"tion, at the same time that it possesses "all the medicinal properties of Cod Liver "Oil, has the advantages of being easier to "assimilate and of having a more agreeable "taste."—Dr. Ignacio Pirovano.

GILT-EDGED ARGENTINE DEBENTURES.

As we have recently had the annual reports of the Central Argentine and Buenos Ayres and Rosario and the half-yearly reports of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern, Buenos Ayres Western, and Buenos Ayres and Pacific Railway Companies, it may be of interest to review their position, following the same lines that we adopted six months ago. The two first-named have suffered most from the plague of locusts, and their traffics, in consequence, show a considerable falling off since the commencement of this year; so that the very large margin of revenue available for the interest on their bonds is all the more satisfactory. In order to get the same comparison we will take the net revenue of each company for the twelve months from January 1st to December 31st, 1896, and than see what proportion of it is required to meet the interest on the four per cent. debenture stocks of the five companies. But first it may be useful to show the amounts of debenture stock that have been issued, and the yield at the current quotations:—

	4 per Cent. Debenture Stk.	Price	Yield per cent
	£	£	£ s d
B. A. Great Southern.	4,000,000	119	3 7 2
Central Argentine.....	583,292	113	3 10 9
Buenos Ayres Western	3,672,655	114	3 10 2
Buenos A. and Rosario	3,451,883	112	3 11 3
Buenos Ayres & Pacific	2,200,000	107	3 14 9

In addition to these amounts the Great Southern has £1,032,930 of four-and-a-half per cent. debentures, the Central Argentine has £443,805 of the original six per cent. debenture stock and a prior charge of £137,865 for the rentals of the Northern and Western sections, and the Buenos Aires Western has the interest on the five and six per cent. Western of Buenos Aires bonds to meet, which comes to £147,000 per annum, and ranks before the debenture stock. These are points which must not be lost sight of in any attempt to gauge the situation. It will be observed that we have placed the amount of the Great Southern debenture stock at £4,000,000, although it will not reach that figure until the last instalment of the recent new issue is paid up next July. Among the others the only change since we last wrote is in Buenos Aires and Rosario, where the stock was increased by £135,500 during 1896.

Compared with six months ago, the yield on Great Southern and Central Argentine is slightly higher; but the prices of the other three—more especially Rosario—having risen, the return is somewhat smaller. None the less, having regard to the gilt-edged character of all these stocks, they appear to offer a rate of interest which cannot be obtained in any similarly—secured investment that we are aware of. For the year 1896 the net revenue of the Great Southern came to £888,000 in round figures, that of the Central Argentine to £465,925, of the Western to £575,000, of the Rosario to £367,000, and of the Buenos Aires and Pacific to £223,262; but in the following table we have deducted from these totals £147,000 in the case of the Western for its prior charges on the old Government bonds, and £137,865 in the case of the Central Argentine for the rentals of the Western and Northern sections. We have also included under the head of debenture interest the four-and-a-half per cent. issue of the Great Southern and the six per cent. issue of the Central Argentine; so that the table may be taken to be an absolutely reliable guide to the revenue available for the four per cent. debenture stocks of each company:—

	Total Deb. interest.	1896 income less prior charges	Surplus over requirements.
	£.	£.	£.
B. A. Great Southern...	206,480	888,000	681,520
Central Argentine.....	50,000	328,060	278,060
Buenos Aires Western..	146,904	428,000	281,096
Buenos Ayres & Rosario	138,072	367,000	228,928
Buenos Ayres & Pacific..	88,000	223,262	135,262

It will be admitted that the safety of the debenture stocks is sufficiently demonstrated by these figures, and it is worth mentioning that whereas the margin over the debenture interest on the Buenos Aires and Rosario came to £185,500 in 1895, it was £228,928 in 1896; while, similarly, the surplus on the Buenos Ayres and Pacific, which was £91,000 for the twelve months ended June 30 last, was £135,262 for the calendar year 1896. In January last a further issue of £450,000 four-and-a-half per cent. second debenture stock was made by the Buenos Ayres and Pacific Company, bringing up the total of the second debentures to £1,360,000 and as the receipts show an increase of £13,000, since the commencement of this year there is every prospect that the revenue available for the Seconds will be fully double their requirements.

In view of the scarcity of really safe investments yielding 3 per cent. and upwards, it is a little surprising that some, at all events, of these debenture stocks do not stand higher. It is true that owing to the devastations of locusts the Central Argentine revenue has declined £60,214 in the last nineteen weeks, while there has also been a falling off of £28,985 on the Buenos Ayres and Rosario owing to the same cause; but it can hardly be supposed that the locusts will be a perpetual plague, and a consideration of the figures we have given shows what a tremendous decrease must take place before there is the slightest danger of the debenture interest in either company not being met. On the other hand, the Buenos Ayres Great Southern has an increase of about £21,000 this year, and, in spite of the growth of its fixed charges, it will be seen that on the basis of the 1896 earnings the debenture interest is covered more than four times over. How far a fair comparison can be instituted between a great railway in England and the premier railway, under English management, in the Argentine Republic we leave to others to decide; but we cannot refrain from pointing out some remarkable statistics. On the London and North-Western in the twelve months ended June 30 last the loans, rentals, and preference charges required £2,833,278 out of a net revenue of £5,779,480, which was the product of gross receipts of £12,116,421. The fixed charges, therefore, absorbed 23·37 per cent. of the gross and 49 per cent. of the net revenue. On the Buenos Ayres Great Southern the gross receipts in 1896 came to £1,383,000 and the net to £888,000, while the total interest on the debenture stocks is now only £206,480 (including the instalments of the last loan not yet called up.) The debenture interest consequently represented only 15 per cent. of the gross and 23 per cent. of the net revenue—which almost makes one wonder how it is that the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Four per Cent. Debenture Stock is quoted at 119, while London and North-Western four per cent. Preference stands at 152. The limitation of trustee investments are, no doubt, largely responsible for the price of London and North-Western Preference; for, on their merits, the Great Southern debenture stock would seem to be equally gilt-edged. In any case, we need no apology for once more calling attention to a group of investments which combine absolute security with a fair rate of interest.—Financial Times.

BANFIELD CONCERT.

The Italian hall of Banfield was crowded in extreme on Wednesday evening last on the occasion of a concert given in commemoration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. The rather lengthy programme was well carried out from beginning to end, which spoke well for its organizer Mr. A. J. Goode. The programme itself was one of the prettiest we have seen.

Miss Stalker opened the evening's proceedings with a masterly executed piano solo, which called forth much applause. Next followed Mr. Scharenberg with "Take a pair of Sparkling Eyes," the singer doing full justice to the song, which was awarded an encore; the same gentleman favouring again later on. "Afterwards" was sung by Miss L. Stalker, who was in splendid voice, the audience demanding an encore. Miss Stalker also very kindly consented to sing in the absence of Mrs. Bennet, giving "By the Fountain" Mr. Sims was well received in "The Holy City," displayed his tenor voice to advantage. Miss Sotham the happy possessor of a strong contralto voice, proved to be a singer of no mean order in her song "Waiting." The comic part of the programme was in the hands of Messrs Poulton, Willmott and Humphreys; all three gentlemen acquitted themselves admirably.

Mr. Green in his violin solo was excellent.

The second part was then proceeded with. "The Serpentine Dance," which was the main feature, was accomplished to pertection. Miss Georgina Belmoti, in the person of Mr. Willmott, made a very attractive young lady, his movements being performed in a graceful manner.

Number 157 B was a laughable comedy carried out in a manner which called forth great applause. Mr. A Goode, as Mrs Wikins, was very good. Mr. Sims, as "Sambo Bones," did his duty in a way which could only have been done by a professional actor. Messrs Stocks, Kingsland, Hirst, and Willmott did the little they had to do in fine style.

Too much praise cannot be awarded to Mr. A.J. Goode to whose untiring efforts is due the success of the concert.

'God save the Queen' concluded a pleasant evening. Those who remained after the 10.30 train to town kept up dancing until far into the wee hours of the night.

LA PLATA.

(From our own Correspondent)

June, 17th.

It is generally reported that Dr. Udaondo intends to place his veto on the recent sanction accorded by the Legislature to the Bill extending for 60 days the term allotted for payment, without fine, of the taxes due in former years. To-morrow the Deputies should discuss the Bill authorizing the Executive to spend $25,000 gold in the purchase of dredgers and accessories for the La Plata port.

The inner channels and also the entrance channel are daily becoming more and more silted up and, as the absolute necessity of such a purchase is generally acknowledged, no doubt is entertained that the Bill will at once become law.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Clerk played old Harry with everything yesterday, and all the clouds that lour'd o'er the houses of the city in the wild freshness of morning came down in the shape of rain in the afternoon. The consequence was the spoiling of Rotten Row, religious procession, football and the whole boiling. Well, let us hope for better luck next Ascension Thursday.

The news from old Europe yesterday was good, bad and indifferent, to suit all tastes. Our London friends have their considering caps on about a new loan to Argentina, but first want to know where on earth the money for the full pay programme is to come from. The Sultan is defying the Powers. He has called out 70.000 more troops, and ordered a million-and-a-half of Mausers. Meanwhile he keeps playing the whole lot of Powers like a salmon on a hook, and the London papers are beginning to smell a rat.

There was nothing very new about the War of the Roses in Uruguay yesterday; but 'novedades' are expected to-day. The White Committee here say that Lamas and Saraiva whipped Villar on Wednesday at Mataojo, but the news requires confirmation.

The cables said two days ago that the highest temperature yet known was registered at Jaccobad, on the frontier of Beluchistan, on Monday, when the thermometer reached 125° Fahrenheit or 52° centigrade 'in the shade'. It's not the highest known. Our invincible correspondent Stand-by O'Gorman tells us that he was once pleasant and cool at Bushire under 126¼ Fahrt in the shade.

The M.V.T. says:—"The Bien is growing witty under its new editor, It says, referring to the rumoured appointment of General M. Tajes as Commander in Chief, "Given the superior knowledge of this officer, it is to be supposed that our squadron will not again find itself pursued by cavalry, as was stated in a recent bulletin of the Nacion."

On the night of the 22nd the British Legation in Avenida Alvear will be splendidly illuminated with gas, with the letters V.R. and the Imperial Crown; and the frent of the building will be decorated with all the varieties of British flags.

Matters are beginning to look pescatorial in Montevideo for Borda. His intimates are urging him to declare himself Dictator, and to expel his predecessor from the country, as he is credited with being at the bottom of the opposition in the Chambers.

The remains of the late Señora Varela de Moreno arrived yesterday at Montevideo from Chile in the P. C. S. Oropesa, and will be here this morning in the river steamer Olimpo. The funeral cortége will leave the Darsena at 9.30 a.m, for the Recoleta.

The steamship City of Lincoln, Captain Pritchard, left yesterday morning for South Africa with 1,500 donkeys on board, two first class passengers and 45 peons, mostly Germans. The donkeys are shipped by Mr. Scott Robson; it is a trial shipment, as this is the first that has been made. They are for the Government and will be used to transport stores. Captain Pritchard expects to land them at Port Natal in about 16 days. Extra strong fittings have been put up for the donkeys, as in order not to bring the steamer back in ballast, a cargo of camels and white elephants will be brought for account of Blanco revolutionary party to be used in pursuing President Borda's warships.

A Scotch visitor to the Carlyles, in Cheyne Row, was much struck with the sound-proof room which the sage had contrived for himself in the attic, lighted from the top, and where no sound from outside could penetrate. "My certes, this is fine," cried the old friend with unconscious sarcasm; "here ye may write and study all the rest of your life, and no human being be one bit the wiser."

It is stated that a Polish chemist has invented an anæsthetic which volatilises rapidly on exposure to the air, rendering all persons near unconscious for a long time. A pellet broken under a man's nose puts him to sleep for four hours. Of course, it is suggested that bombs charged with large quantities of this substance might be used to render "armies" incapable of resistance.

In the forged note discovery at La Plata, the principal culprit is an engraver in the Government School of Arts there! This is on a par with the announcement made the other by a leading colleague, and not contradicted officially or otherwise, that the tickets for all the clandestine lotteries are printed in the Museum of La Plata "imprenta". As "e viejo luchador," Don Domingo, used to say, there is evidently a "tornillo flojo" somewhere.

We are most happy to be able to announce that Dr. Eduardo Costa was much better yesterday, and considerable hopes are now entertained of his pulling through.

Dr. Brewer, in his "Dictionary of Phrase and Fable," tells the following story: "It is said that Spurgeon used to practice his students in extempore preaching from a text only disclosed in the pulpit, and that one of his young men, when he opened the note containing his text, read the single word "Zacchæus." He thought for a minute or two, and then delivered: "Zacchæus was a little man, so am I; Zacchæus was up a tree, so am I; Zacchæus made haste and came down, and so do I." He suited the action to the word."

H. M. S. Beagle has arrived in Dock 3, to take her part in the Jubilee racket, and the Basilisk is at Rosario, to help the Britishers there through it. This Jubilee business is now on the brain of all English-speaking citizens, and the unfortunate members of the Committee are losing weight visibly with the tremendous strain of work, and will be as thin as walking sticks when the 8th of July prance winds up the whole affair.

Regarding that most misguided æsthete Oscar Wilde, who was released from jail the other day, having served his two years, it is told that not one iota of the strictness of prison regulations, rules, and discipline, was relaxed in his favour. He was treated exactly as any other man who is sentenced to "do time." Every request to his custodians was made with a bow that would have done honour to the Court of Louis XIV. Prison officers say it was a pleasure to guard him.

There are fresh rumours flying about as to the critical condition of the cruiser Garibaldi. The public seem destined never to hear the end of the trouble about this ill-omened ship. Why not take her guns out at once and send her into the new graving dock?

Dr. Francisco Uriburu junr, and Mr Alfred Lumb are expected in the R. M. S. Nile, due at Montevideo to-day.

The marriage of Mr. George Attwell and Miss de Veyga, which took place on Wednesday night in the Scotch Church was a grand affair. There was a double ceremony, first in the Scotch church, then the Catholic ceremony at the residence of the bride's family. The President of the Republic and his Señora and a number of leading families were present. The presents to the bride were very numerous and valuable. We wish the happy couple a life-long honeymoon.

One of General Grant's early playmates says of him:—"I never saw him show any resentment, and I do not believe he ever felt a tinge of it. He was never rude, oppressive, or disagreeable to other children. Once, when he was a very young scholar, he was much troubled by one of his lessons. A schoolmate, noticing his perplexity, said, 'You can't master that?" Ulysses replied, 'Can't! What does it mean?' 'Why,' replied the boy, 'it means that—that you can't. There!' Ulysses went to the dictionary and tried unsuccessfully to find the word there. Then he went to his teacher, and asked him what was the meaning of the word' 'can't', telling him that he had searched for it in vain in the dictionary. The teacher gave him the proper explanation, and added—'Ulysses, if in the struggle of life any person should assert that you can't do a thing you desire to accomplish, let your answer be, The word can't is not in the dictionary."

At it again, Jonathan. The London correspondent of the New York Sun makes the startling announcement that Her Majesty the Queen is now almost totally blind, and gives as his authority one of her private physicians. In London no one believes a word of this. If it be true, her abdication or the nomination of a Prince Regent is not far off. Her personal physician, Sir John Reid, is now on vacation, which does not at all tally with the Sun's sensational news. That Her Majesty's sight is failing, and perhaps rapidly, is no great wonder at her advanced age.

John Bull, the greatest trader in the world, has some very peculiar notions, which his cousin German has latterly undertaken to knock out of him. Read the following paragraph from The Board of Trade Journal:—"The British Consul at Amoy states that one reason of the success of foreigners as against British in the trade in small articles in his district, and, indeed, throughout China generally, is that a feeling exists among the British that it is more genteel to deal in certain commodities than in others. Thus, at home a brewer holds a higher social position than a grocer or haberdasher. In China, dealers in tea and silk formed the English commercial aristocracy, and articles other than the two above named were called "muck and truck," and it was considered derogatory to deal in them. The trade in them was consequently taken up by foreigners, who naturally imported goods made in their respective countries. This policy is, however, in the process of being modified".

25 DE MAYO 112

Many of our readers here will learn with sincere regret of the death in London on May 13, in her 72nd year of Mrs. Mary Solbe Hoskin, relict of the late Rev. T. R. Hoskin some time Consular Chaplain in Montevideo. M. V. T.

Messrs. Breyer Bros of 69 Calle Florida, the well-known music publishers, are kindly keeping the STANDARD music stand well supplied of late. Yesterday they sent us a charming arrangement of the new dance. "The Washington Post March" for the piano, arranged by Furlotti, consequently, it must be well done.

No British community on the South American Continent well come within even sight of that in this city in celebration of the Queen's Jubilee. Our little neighbour Montevideo will make a fair show, according to its size and means; but in Valparaiso we can find nothing in the programme (not even a bottle of soda water) except the ordinary Athletic sports, and subscriptions. It's all cash and no champagne.

The Isthmus of Panama still holds the North and South of this Continent together. Our latest date from it is May 13th. As usual, there is no news from Panama in the papers, but plenty from all other parts of the world, the queerest system of making up a Packet Edition that we know of in our long experience.

Our French friends are already sounding notes of preparation and closing rivets up for their annual Bastille pow-wow on the 14th prox. They intend to make it more brilliant than ever this year, and a grand torchlight procession is in the programme.

Her Majesty the Queen in her long life has travelled very little abroad. It is said that she has never been in Russia, Denmark, Austria, Sweden, Norway, Spain or Greece. She has never yet set eyes on any of her colonies, or upon any part of Asia, Africa or America.

Across the Jordan there was, in the first fizzing moment of enthusiasm at Dr. Sanarelli having signed Yellow Jack's death warrant by his bacillus discovery, a proposal to give him a present from the State of $10,000; but this has been changed to the honour of Uruguayan citizenship. We should say that the talented doctor would much prefer the cash; at least we should if in his position; but he will be entitled to a large sum offered by the Brazilian Government for the discovery of an antidote to yellow fever.

"Those Miserable Locusts" (We doubt that they are a bit miserable), as our excellent colleague the M. V. T. calls them, are now in Santiago del Estero and Tucuman as well as Entre Rios and Rioja. They evidently intend to spend the winter in this country.

Hear this, steamer agents. The latest novelty, now under serious consideration, in connection with the Atlantic service, is a steamer essentially built for the passenger trade, with absolutely no space for cargo, her decks to be unobstructed by winches, hatches and other impediments. It is reckoned that the time gained in a round voyage owing to avoidance of loss of time requisite for loading and discharging cargo, which is now carried at a nominal figure, will fully compensate for loss in freight.

Special Notice.

ST. ANDREW'S DEBATING SOCIETY.

A discussion will be held to-night (Friday) at 8.30 at 352 Peru, on the question. Are literary pursuits possible in Buenos Aires. All welcome.

The S. S. White Dental Manufacturing Co. of Philadelphia did not need to await the report of the Commission who came out here last year from the United States in order to decide whether this country offereda good field for the introduction of their specialities. Already in September 1895, Mr. Luis Xiques, representing this important American house in South America, had opened a branch in Calle Victoria 773, and for more than a year had been affording the Dental profession the inestimable advantage of a selection of dental machines, furniture and materials such as is not surpassed in any of the principal cities of the world.

A dentist is no longer prevented from doing the very finest work in connection with his profession from lack of the necessary materials, while the most modern improvements and latest inventions are brought within his knowledge and reach. This enterprising Company having now, removed to the fine commodious premises at the corner of Avenida Mayo and Peru, have determined to introduce into this market their famed dental preparations and mouth specialities. Tooth powders agreeable to taste and smell, mouth washes that refresh the mouths of even the most hardened smoker, tooth pastes removing unpleasant secretions of tartar, and most important of all tooth brushes, scientifically modelled, that do not become soft and useless after a few weeks' use, are now obtainable.

The Company deals exclusively in dental goods, manufacturing everything itself, even the packages and bottles, which are in themselves works of art.

We wish the S. S. White Co. success in their new premises, and a long and prosperous stay in our midst.

The American Church will celebrate the "Jubilee" by a special thanksgiving service Sunday at 11 a.m. The decoration of the church will be in the hands of the Epworth League. The National Anthems of England and America will be sung, and appropriate music under direction of Professor Wellby. Dr. McLaughlin will preach. The evening service will be suspended in order to unite in the Jubilee service in St. Andrew's Scotch church.

The best preparation for preserving, restoring, and beautifying the hair is

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

It keeps the scalp free from dandruff, heals troublesome humors, and prevents the hair from falling out. When the hair becomes dry, thin, faded, or gray, it restores the original color and texture and promotes a new and vigorous growth. Wherever used, Ayer's Hair Vigor supplants all other dressings, and becomes at once the favorite with ladies and gentlemen alike.

SPORT.

RACING IN THE PARK.

We might preface the chronicle of yesterday's proceedings by stating that it is almost useless to gauge form from it, for the simple reason that, though there was no heavy downpour, the day was a steady drizzle nearly all through, which took away a lot of the gilt, and must undoubtedly have upset calculations considerably. It was some consolation to see the classic fall to a good horse in Oriel, though even in this backers of the Paris colours must have felt very uneasy at one time, when they saw Argentino get to the distance 10 or 12 lengths ahead of the crack. But, as it turned out, Aguilera was only biding his time, as when he gave Oriel his head in the straight he galloped all over Argentino and won almost without an effort. The victory was a very popular one, and of course was almost a foregone conclusion as nothing at the weights seemed in it with Oriel when the other cracks declined, but all the same as we have just remarked, Aguilera timed his run to such a nicety, that most of the money on the colour must have been for a few moments feeling very queerish. However he won right enough, and pretty easily too. In the first event Cristiana had very little to spare at the finish, but still as she stays a bit and has a fair turn of speed, it was rather a surprise to find her so neglected that she paid over $17 dividend. A new comer on the scene, apparently a useful colt too, Florin, by Neapolis, won the second from post to post, without much trouble, and Laurel upset the long distance book, though it was a bit of a squeeze at the finish. Glicina might reasonably have been expected to shew prominently in the next, as she gave a towering "divide" not long ago on a heavy course, so that her win might easily have been more discounted; but people looked upon the issue as a safe thing for Chingolo and booked him as if it were all over; he only got third and did not pay place money. The Mile proved a gift for Hipolito who threaded his way up second in the first 500 metres then waited on Grillon and romped home from the distance. The final only brought out 6 runners of which Acero proved the best a rather cheerless meeting thus coming to a close. The following are the details:—

Premio Saint Gall.

For all horses with one year's residence in the country and have not won more than $4,000. Distance 1,300 metres. Prize $1,500 to the 1st and $100 to the 2nd.

	Yrs.	Kls.
A Lincoln, Christiana, by Saint Honorat out of Annette	3	52	1
Stud Redencion, Orleans	3	52	2
Petite Ecurie, Voltigeur	3	52	3

Also ran—Nemo, Mangrullo, Vengador, Coronel Dorego, Descubridor, Hermit, Redoutable, Aguila, Rodin, La Fornarina, Mundana and Sorpresa.

At the second attempt the flag was put down, Cristiana jumping right into her bridle and taking them at a good round to the stand with Hermit at her heels. Orleans, Rodin and Voltigeur challenged very vigorously in the last 100 metres, but Cristiana held out very gamely and won very cleverly by a neck. Voltigeur was a fair third and Rodin fourth.

Sport—Cristiana $17.28; place $5.88. Orleans $5.58. Voltigeur $5.66.

Premio Gl. Pauncro.

For all two year olds that have not won. Weights 50 and 52 kilos. Distance 1100 metres. Prize $1700 to the 1st and 100 to the 2nd.

	Yrs.	Kls.
Stud Golondrina's Florin by Neapolis out of Fossette	2	52	1
Stud Los Cardos' Citoyenne	2	50	2
Ecurie Juncal's Fanciulla	2	50	3

Also ran—Usura, Odin, Huapi, Le Destrier, Gyp, Esteatita, Amelia, and Sirena II.

There was a lot of delay in getting them off, and when the flag did go down it was a very straggling effort, of which Florin and Sirena got the advantage. The pair showed the way almost abreast into the bend, where Florin took definite command, and never afterwards being troubled won very easily by about 1½ lengths. Fanciulla close up and Sirena a good fourth.

Sport— Florin $37.50; placé $13.05, Citoyenne 6.09, Fanciulla 5.39.

Premio San Martin.

For all 3-years olds and over. Weight for 3 year old 53 kilos. Weight for 4 years olds and over 56 kilos. Extra weight for winners of $10,000 to $15,000 3 kilos; winners of $15,000 to 25,000 5 kilos; winners of more than $25,000 7 kilos. Distance 2500 metres. Prize $4500 to the 1st, 500 to the 2nd, and 3rd entrance fee.

	Yrs.	Ks.
Stud Paris, Oriel by Orbit out of Brunette	5	61	1
Ecurie Argentino, Argentino	3	53	2
General Paz, Thiers	5	56	3

Also ran—Espoir, Violin, Whipper in II, Talma, Fauvette, Idiota.

At the second attempt the lot were sent off with Oriel in the van, but he was very promptly steadied and his stable companion Fauvette took his place making the pace such a merry one that at the stand she was three or four lengths ahead of Whipper in who was in turn four or five lengths ahead of the bunch led by Argentino, in this order they raced all round to the railway crossing where Whipper in compounded and Argentino began to decrease the gap separating him from Fauvette. In the bend he got his head and raced past the leader coming into the straight with a couple of lengths advantage, and being at least 10 lengths in front of Oriel. The latter, however, as soon as he was asked the question made a prompt response, and coming with a rattle past the stand caught Argentino 100 metres from home, and won easily by a couple of lengths. Thiers a moderate third.

Sport—Oriel $3.61 placé $3.17; Argentino 5.60.

Premio Brindis.

Handicap for all horses. Prize $2,500 to the 1st and $200 to the 2nd. Distance 2100 metres.

	Yrs.	Ks.
Stud Floresta, Laurel, by Phœnix out of Exchantress	4	48	1
Ecurie Azur, Stamboul	5	48	2
M. F. Franks' Humo	4	43	3

Also ran—Cantinicre, Don Gonzalo, Ortegal, Pichincha.

Ortegal settled down in front from the fall of the flag, and well clear of Humo shewed the way the whole journey into the lower bend. Here Humo shot past and took up the running, whilst Laurel and Stamboul drew up. At the stand both closed on Humo, a very pretty finish between the three ending in favor of Laurel by a neck, a head separating second and third.

Sport—Laurel $19.16. Placé 9.50; Stamboul 9.41.

Premio Balcarce.

For all two year old. Weight 52 and 50 kilos. Three kilos extra for the winners of one race. Five kilos extra for the winners of two races, and seven kilos for the winners of three or more races. Distance 1,300 metres. Prizes $1,500 to the 1st and 100 to the 2nd.

	Yrs.	Kls.
Stud Solitario, Glicina by Jonquil out of Glenshee	2	53	1
E Semper Paratus, Pompeyo	2	52	2
Petite Ecurie, Chingolo	2	55	3

Also ran—Catanga, Centella, Plaisanterie.

Chingoo and Glicina fought out the leadership to the bend where the latter drew away and stalling off a very vigorous effort from Pompeyo won cleverly by about 3 parts.

Sport—Glicina 13.27; Place 5.54. Pompeyo 5.04.

Premio Sarandi.

Handicap for all horses. Distance 1600 metres. Prize $1700 to the 1st and 100 to the 2nd.

	Yrs.	Kls.
Stud Las Piedras, Hipólito by Zanoni out Hyppolyt	4	50	1
Ecurie Belgrano, Rose Royale	4	52	2
Stud Floresta, Anzoletto	6	57	3

Also ran—Independiente, Coral, Eléctrica, Asteroide, Osman, Grillon, Rayon d'Or, Cartujo.

When the lot cleared the bushes Grillon was in command with Eléctrica as his nearest attendant, but before they had compassed the crossing Hipolito had shot up into second place, holding it to the straight. Here he put paid to Grillon's a/c, and, never afterwards being troubled, won very easily by a couple of lengths, a like distance separating second and third.

Sport—Hipolito $10.41. Placé 3.76. Rose Royale 6,37, Anzoletto 4.60.

Premio Impossible.

Handicap for all horses. Distance 1800 metres. Prize $2000 to the 1st and 200 to the 2nd.

	Yrs.	Kls.
Stud Red Lancer, Acero by Saint Honorat out Talon	3	42½	1
Stud Solitario, Esfinge	4	58½	2
Ecurie Pergamino, Salteador	4	45½	3

Also ran—Chaipuel, Estudiante, Zafarrancho II.

Acero made all the running, and won by 5 or 6 lengths.

FOOTBALL.

BELGRANO A. v. BANFIELD.

This League match was played yesterday at Banfield in most unpleasant weather, rain falling all the time, and, consequently the ground was in a most dreadful state, in many places being completely under water. The condition of the ground rendered all attempt at anything like scientific play quite out of the question, the players slipping about in all directions. The Banfield men, notwithstanding they were opposed to an unbeaten team, played up most pluckily and for a long time kept their goal intact, but when scoring did commence the visitors had it all their own way.

Banfield won the toss, and elected to defend the Lomas goal which was the freer from water. Hands against Belgrano, was followed by a determined rush by Rugeroni and Harvey, but the Banfield backs relieved, and the ball was again in the centre. Belgrano now began to press, and several times were very dangerous, Harvey being particularly conspicuous. From a shot at goal, which went wide, the Banfield forwards carried the ball right in front of the visitors, goal, and for some little time the play was most exciting, but at length the pressure was relieved, and the leather passed down to the home goal; and from a throw in, Negron got possession and scored first blood for Belgrano. Immediately after the kick off, Harvey passed to Rugeroni, who put the ball through, scoring the second point. Shortly after this, a good kick from the centre of the field by Roy was headed through by Harvey, making the game three goals to nothing.

The second half of the game showed more completely the superiority of the Belgrano team, shots at goal following each other in quick succession, and though the Banfield men worked very hard, and showed good combination, their efforts were futile. Ibittson scored the fourth goal, Rugeroni the fifth and Macfarlane, with a very long shot, the sixth; the final score being six goals to nothing in favour of Belgrano,

LOMAS v. LANUS.

In spite of the hard rain and sloppy condition of the ground, this league match came off at Lomas yesterday, and ended in a victory for the home team by three goals to one. The game was well fought all through, Lomas put a strong team in the field, as will be seen by the names below. Ritchie kept goal in tip top style; while, Wright, F. H. Jacobs and W. Leslie as half-backs did some very good service. The same may be said of Comber, Gibson, and J. O. Anderson, T. Bridge, W. Buchanan, G. Brown, and C. Comber did good service for the visitors. The following were the teams:—

Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. THE VICTORIA SAILORS' HOME.

The Queen Victoria Commemoration Committee have begun sending aorward the circular published at foot. ot is an appeal to all British subjects, to fll descendants of Britishers, and to all sympathisers, to subscribe for the erection If a memorial to commemorate an unique event in British History, and that memorial is to take the shape of a Sailors' Home—there would be no nobler tribute to the sovereign who rules the waves than a refuge for the toilers of the sea. In the loyal, charitable, unsectarian object let all join hands and answer the appeal according to their respective means.

Apart from the great event that the Memorial will commemorate at the gates of our city, within hail of the docks—there is in this resolution of the British residents to build a Sailors' Home a breadth of view, a field of action, that silences all differences, and must weld all the elements of the community into one common aspiration to see the generous idea immediately carried out. We have no doubt that all will respond to the charitable call, and help in the cause.

The following is the circular sent out by the Committee to the British residents and descendants of Britishers in the Republic:—

Commemoration of the 60th Anniversary of Queen Victoria's Accession.

COMMITTEE:

Hon. W. A. C. Barrington, Chairman.

T. S. Boadle.	W. F. Mulhall.
F. W. Barrow.	J. F. Roberts.
Ronald Bridgett.	John Russell.
John Dunn.	R. Inglis Runciman.
John Drysdale.	H. C. Thompson.
Rev. J. W. Fleming.	Rymer O. Watson.
P. Ham.	W. Warden.
A. Mackintosh.	J. C. Zimmermann.
H. M. Mills.

At the meeting held in Prince George's Hall on 21st April, 1897, a Committee was appointed to consider various schemes proposed for the commemoration of the 60th anniversary of the accession to the throne of Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

The Committee submitted its report to a general meeting held on 6th May, 1897, and recommended the following :—

1.—A congratulatory telegram to the Queen, and a request to employers to give their employees a holiday.

2.—A free entertainment at the Circus for children.

3.—Performance of the opera "H. M. S. Pinafore."

4.—The erection of a Sailors' Home as a permanent memento of the event, to be handed over to the Sailors' Home Committee on completion.

These proposals were adopted. The above Committee has been appointed to carry them into effect, and it now appeals to those who sympathise with the object for subscriptions to the fund required for the purpose.

The land for the proposed Sailors' Home has been granted by Congress free of charge and for the erection and furnishing of the building it is estimated that a sum of about $80,000 will be required. Statistics submitted to the Committee relative to the working of the present Home (the rent of which is $300 per month) show that with a more suitable building, free of rent and properly equipped, the institution would be almost self-supporting. so that, while it will be a lasting memento of an event which is unique in the history of the British Empire, it is not likely that there will be an increased call on the annual subcribers for its maintenance. Appended will be found a few particulars of the work done by the present Home.

It would be very appropriate were the fund completed by the 22nd of June, and the Committee will feel obliged if you will kindly fill up the annexed form and send it with the amount of your subscription to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. R. Inglis Runciman.

Subscriptions may be paid into the following Banks to the credit of "The Victoria Commemoration Fund," viz:—

The London & River Plate Bank.
The British Bank & South America.
The London & Brazilian Bank.
The Anglo-Argentine Bank.

William A. C. Barrington, Charman.

The Pabellon Argentino in the Plaza San Martin has been engaged for the night of the 22nd for a popular Promenade Concert. Admission will be charged $1 m/n. E. the Hon. W. A. C. Barrington will open the proceedings at 8.30 p.m. The programme will be published early next week.

Medals are being struck to commemorate the event. The medal will bear on one side a bust-portrait of Her Majesty with the dates 1837-1897 and the motto :—

On the reverse are the British and Argentine flags entwined with a laurel wreath and the abbreviation :—

The medal will be of silver, and size of a half-crown piece. It is being struck by the Mint, and will be sold at the rate of $5 m/n. These medals will be on sale on the 19th inst., at places which will be announced later on.

On the 8th of July, the Directors of the Prince George's Hall will give a ball with which the Committee will be officially associated.

British Hospital.

Boys' Orphanage.
Quilmes Orphanage.
Salvation Army Refuge.
Victoria Convalescent Home.

As the main purpose of the Committee is the erection of a Sailors' Home, they are providing for the entertainment at tea of British sailors in port at the present Sailors' Home.

In carrying out the above programme it is to be noted that the money subscribed for the Sailors' Home will be devoted to that purpose only.
